ASHIHARA INTERNATIONAL KARATE ORGANIZATION

Aiko 2nd Eurasian Kumite Kata Championship
With Hanshi Dave Jonkers and Shihan Marcel van den Berg
Kihon Kata Seminar & 2. Kiwami Kumite cup

1: INTRODUCTION

This is the official invitation to the 2nd AIKO and AIF EuroAsian Championship which will be held between 8-12 March 2023 in Turkiye. The organization is being hosted by the Turkish AIKO and AIF organization committee under the leadership of Uğur Baran who is one of the Turkish Branch chiefs of AIKO in Turkiye.

As the Turkish delegation organized this organization for the second time, we expect a very good organization regarding the EuroAsia Championship.

7: DOCUMENTATION AND INFORMATION

During the weigh-ing / check- in, you must be prepared to give the following Information or documentation:

- Name and Birthdate, Nationality.
- Show ID or Passport (to check the nationality and age). No copy may be made as per international laws
- Licence copy for National Team athletes
- Medical report approved by the doctor. (all athletes)
- Parents' permission (Authorization) (only for competitors under 18 years old).
- Responsibility letter (you will have to sign and complete the document at the weigh-in)
- Personal accident insurance policy for all sportsmen
- Must pay the participation fee.

Each competitor must have a personal insurance, for any accident that may occur at the competition.

THE COMPETITOR WITHOUT INSURANCE WILL NOT COMPETE IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

11: GENERAL RULES CONCERNING THE COMPETITION

- Only Official forms will be accepted, the forms will be attached to the next email.
- Together with this bulletin we are sending you the kumite rules for children and junior, the kata rules, which will be the official ones for the Championship.
- All Organizations are accepted.
- It is obligatory to write down the name of the coach on the inscription to be accepted. Maximum number will be 2 coaches because in our competition there will be 3 tatamis.
- Every Ashihara group from each country can register unlimited numbers of competitors per category and weight.
- The organizers have the right to cancel the event or modify categories and weight if there won't be an appropriate number of participants.
- Men and women are not allowed to compete against each other.
- The KUMITE competition among adult competitors will be held in weight divisions. ➤ With the approval of the AIKO & AIF Sports Branch Judge Committee and Tournament organizers, the organizers have the right to change their weight categories, taking into account the number of competitors and competition conditions. However, this statement must be clearly stated in the application form of the competition.
- When at the weigh-in procedure it is discovered that the weight of a competitor exceeds the upper limit of the weight category they applied for, the competitor will be given the opportunity to lose the excess if unable to do so they will be disqualified, or if possible (with the tournament Committee's approval) given the option to compete in the category above. If the weight of a competitor is less than the lower limit for this weight category, they can participate in the competition, but the weight of the competitor shall be considered as equal to the lower limit of his weight category, if it is not possible to change category.
- In an individual bout, one of the competitors is called "AKA" ("Red") and is differentiated by the red ribbon fastened to his belt on the back, and the other is called "SHIRO" ("White") and is differentiated by the white ribbon fastened to his belt on the back. The SHIRO competitor is called to the competition area first, and the AKA competitor second.
- The use of competitors' names causes problems of pronunciation and identification. Tournament numbers should be allotted and used on identifications (ZEKKEN) in addition to the names whenever possible.
- The competitors that do not present themselves when called within 1 minute will be disqualified (KIKEN).
- No competitor may be replaced by another.
- All competitors must always obey the Referee's orders.
- Coaches must present their accreditation together with that of their competitor to the designated area. The coach must sit in the chair provided and must not interfere with the smooth running of the match by word or deed. Only one coach is allowed to accompany a competitor to the competition area as his second.
- If, through an error in charting, the wrong competitors compete, then regardless of the outcome, that bout is declared null and void.
- Contest area should be covered with semi-hard matting.
- AIKO & AIF have the authority for the matters not described here.
- COUNTRY REPRESENTATIVES CANNOT BE COACHING, THEY MAY WATCH THE CHAMPIONSHIP IN THE SECTION ALLOCATED FOR THEM, THEY NEED TO BRING A COACH WITH THEM
